ABOUT THIS BOOK: This book would appeal to kids that like action books. It is about a boy who visits his cousin for a river rafting adventure. Their trip becomes dangerous as they deal with a hurricane and flooding, the Mexican drug cartels, a criminal and a kidnapping. Good messages from the book include kindness, cooperation, acceptance and compassion.

YOU MIGHT LIKE THIS BOOK IF... You like action packed books. You could go on this adventure with the boys in the book. If you like current history, you will read about some of the issues that go on along our border with Mexico.
